

Miss Mabel Leona Gwinn Becomes Bride of Howard Wendell Brown

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Gwinn, of 117 Queen street, announce today the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mable Leona Gwinn, to Private Howard Wendell Brown.

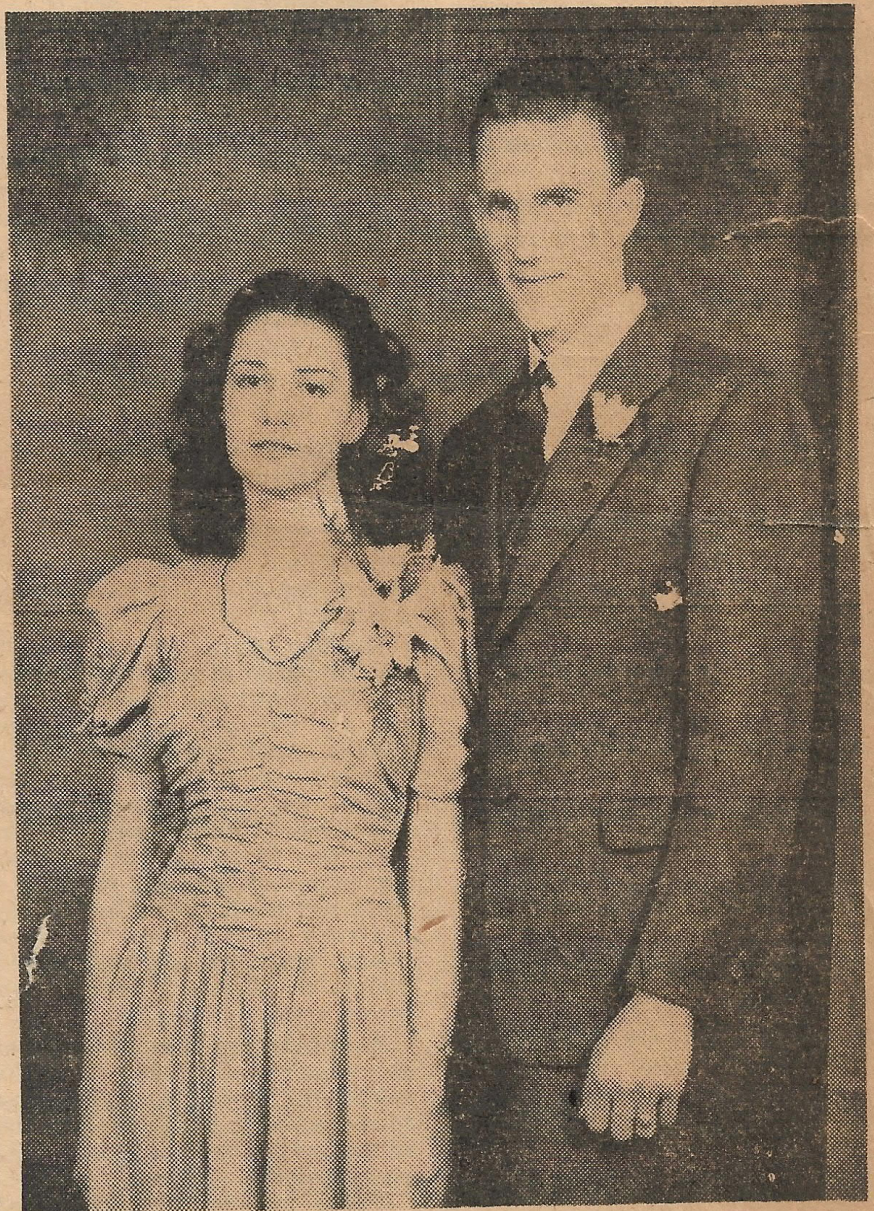

The marriage was performed in the home of the bride's parents on February 16 at 7 p. m., with the Rev. T. H. Fitzgerald officiating in the presence of the immediate families of the bridal couple.

The bride wore a floor length gown of gold chiffon and a corsage of yellow roses. They were unattended.

Mrs. Brown is a student in Woodrow Wilson high school and plans to continue her studies there. She is vice-president of the Girl Reserve club, and is news editor of the Eagle Dispatch, the high school newspaper.

Private Brown is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Brown, of Piney View. He graduated from Woodrow Wilson high school in 1941, and following his graduation was employed in defense work at Rhode Island and Connecticut. He was recently employed by the Beckley Hotel garage here.

He left Wednesday morning to assume his duties in the United States army at Fort Thomas, Kentucky.
